On the discovery trails

Parmi les centaines de kilomètres de chemins balisés du massif, voici une sélection de sentiers de découvertes.

Among the hundreds of kilometres of signposted paths that cross the mountain range, here are a selection of discovery trails.

Le sentier des Maîtres du Mont Déserté

The Maîtres du Mont Déserté trail

Départ : parking les Garins, le Châtelard
Durée boucle : 2h - Dénivelé : 156 m - Difficulté : bleu modéré
Entrez dans l'histoire et apprenez à maîtriser la montagne. A travers une légende, guidé par les statues de bois, découvrez l'histoire du site du Nant des Granges et les techniques pour contrer les glissements de terrain. En 1931, une partie de la montagne a été déstabilisée, entraînant plusieurs hameaux et donnant naissance à une coulée de boue destructive. Détaillez disponibles dans les offices de tourisme d'Allion-le-Jeune et du Châtelard.

Departure: Les Garins car park, Le Châtelard
Loop duration: 2 h - Total elevation gain: 156 m
Difficulty: blue - moderate
Step inside history and learn to rule on the mountain. Through a legend, guided by wooden statues, discover the history of the Nant des Granges site and the techniques used to fight landslides. In 1931, part of the mountain was destabilised, destroying several hamlets and resulting in a destructive mudslide. Leaflet available in the information points : Allion-le-Jeune and Châtelard.

Le sentier des Tannes et Glacières du Margériaz et sa Spéléoroute

The Tannes and Glacières du Margériaz trail and its Spéléoroute caving route

Départ : place à Baban, Allion-le-Jeune
Durée boucle : 3h - Dénivelé : 420 m - Difficulté : bleu modéré

Ce sentier chevigne et pierre calcaire déposez il y a près de 120 000 ans. La bocaine attire forêt, défilé d'algues et larges panoramas sur le plateau de la Leyse, les roches de Belledonne et du Mont-Blanc et propose la découverte des morphologies karstiques du plateau du Margériaz. Sur l'itinéraire, la spéléoroute de la Tanne de Néve : une traversée souterraine aménagée (casque et lampe frontale obligatoires) - Durée 1h30 à 4h/R - Accès en autonomie réglementé par un arrêté municipal (généralement accessible du 1er juillet au 30 octobre) - Accès accompagné par un guide spéléo toute l'année. Livret de découverte : 250 €.

Point info : Allions-Margériaz.
Start: place à Baban, Allion-le-Jeune
Loop duration: 4-5 h - Total elevation gain: 420 m
Difficulty: blue - moderate
A trail in limestone slabs deposited almost 120 million years ago. The loop alternates between forest, alpine pastures and vast panoramas over the Leyse plateau and the Belledonne and Mont-Blanc mountains, allowing hikers to discover the karst morphologies of the Margériaz plateau. On the way, the Tanne de Néve Spéléo route is available. Along the way, a paved crossing is required and headlamp required - Duration 1h30 return - Independent access regulated by municipal order (generally accessible from 1 July to 30 October) - Access accompanied by caving guide all year round. Discovery booklet - €2.50. Info point: Allions-Margériaz.
